Newsletter

Tuesday 18th July 2017

ADNAMS

Oak class have sold their first produce to Adnams. They made £60 for their blackcurrants, which have gone to a pub in Southwold. It is exciting that our company has started to make money, which will go back into the project for new plants.

Willows – please remember sun hats for Wednesday afternoon.

Oaks – Please remember Gardening clothes for Thursday this week.

New Spelling Challenge

This week the children have been assessed ready for the start of the spelling challenge. This is to ensure that they start at the correct level. Before they break up they will come home with the new booklets.

Clubs

Karate starts on the 7th September at lunchtime.

All other clubs will start the second week back.

Goodbye

Well done to Mrs Parfitt for gaining her GCSE Maths in the last few weeks. We would also like to wish her all the best, as she leaves us this week. She is going to do a course in Norwich to train new Teaching Assistants.

Reading

Please continue reading with your children over the summer break. The local libraries are running a reading challenge. For more information visit https://summerreadingchallenge.org.uk/ or your local library.

Animal Agents

Summer Reading Challenge

School Uniform

Can we please remind you that the PE uniform is a white T-shirt and blue navy shorts.

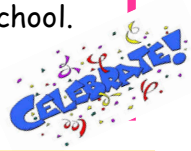
Dates for your Diary

19th July – Athletics at the UEA, those involved have received a letter.

19th July – Willows Picnic and Play afternoon @ 1:30pm

21st July – Last day of term

6th September – Welcome back to school.



Blue Whale

There has been a number of parents who have become concerned about an online game called Blue Whale. We have attached a link for your information http://www.bbc.co.uk/newsbeat/article/39718654/police-warn-parents-about-blue-whale-game-targeting-vulnerable-people