Skylarks

This person always works hard in all of their lessons and puts in 100%! This person pays particular attention to the presentation of their work.

This person is always super helpful around school and really polite to others. He is a good role model for others.

Sparrows

These children have been fantastic at settling back into school life.

We are so proud of them all.

Reading Challenge

We will continue our Reading Challenge next week.

Please do keep reading at home, and remember you can read anything – newspapers, magazines, even cereal packets, as well as your reading books!
