For showing excellent independence and creativity skills with her design for the World War Two garden and Anderson Shelter.

For persevering with his pirate lines and can now deliver his lines with confidence and expression.

Swifts

For their continued hard work and excellent progress in reading. She is thinking really hard about the character's motives.

For being polite and sensible on the Swifts trip. She asked thoughtful questions and answered lots of questions showing off her knowledge of the Victorians.

Skylarks

For being consistently outstanding in all areas. Continuing to gain in confidence and produsing work of a high standard.

For coming in every morning really sensibly and quietly. He has also tried hard with phonics & writing.

Sparrows

Our star of the week this week is all of Sparrows class. They were so well behaved on their trip to the Sealife Centre. They were polite, considerate to others and represented our school beautifully. The Sealife Centre staff specifically commented on their wonderful behaviour.

Reading Challenge

We will count up our reading pebbles next week and let you know the results.

Remember to keep reading at home and getting an adult to sign your reading diary to earn a gem for your class bottle.
