

Celebration Newsletter

Swallows

For his contribution in RE, thinking very carefully about other people views and opinions.

For being a great role model this week - demonstrating great attitude towards her work and for being extremely helpful.

Swifts

For never making a fuss and always being cheerful. She also always tries her best.

For challenging himself with his maths, and reading regularly at home.

Star of the Week

Skylarks

For always using kind and polite words and for trying hard with new sounds in phonics.

Alex - For always taking an active role during whole class and guided reading.

Sparrows

For some wonderful independent writing this week using his phonic knowledge. Well done!

Reading Challenge

Swifts are currently in the lead with the Reading Challenge.

Remember to keep reading at home and getting an adult to sign your reading diary to earn a gem for your class bottle.

PTA News

Unfortunately, the PTA meeting last night had to be cancelled. Once they have a new date, we will let you know.

The PTA are a valuable asset to our school. They not only provide essential equipment for the children, through their tireless fundraising, but they also put on lovely events and treats. The PTA NEED new members. If you would like to get involved, please either contact the school office, or speak to one of the committee members directly. They are a lovely, welcoming bunch of ladies, and you can see who they are if you look at the attached newsletter from them.
