

Celebration Newsletter

Swallows

For making an extra effort with his reading at home.

For focusing during rehearsals and trying his best to get into character.

Mrs Brooks and Mrs Dimmock have been really impressed with Swallows this week, for writing a selection of thought-provoking songs linked to refuge week. Well done everyone.

Swifts

For working so incredibly hard with her reading & writing and making great progress.

For having a very positive attitude to his work and also making the right choices with his behaviour.

For always being positive, hardworking, helpful & happy!

Star of the Week

Skylarks

For gaining independence, improving behaviour & making an effort with her work.

For excellent behaviour, brilliant participation in all lessons & for being a lovely, kind friend to others.

Sparrows

For becoming increasingly confident using his phonics knowledge when writing. Well done!

Reading Challenge

Swallows are in the lead with the Reading Challenge.

Remember to keep reading at home and getting an adult to sign your reading diary to earn a gem for your class bottle.

Values

Our main value for this half term is Aspiration. This also links in with Forgiveness, Trust & Hope.

Big Battery Hunt

Thanks to everyone who collected and recycled batteries for the Big Battery Hunt. We have collected 648 batteries. Over 11 million batteries have been recycled throughout the who campaign, which is fantastic. Please do continue to recycle your batteries. Supermarkets and local shops often have battery recycling bins.

School Photos

We will be getting a link so parents can make their orders online. Once we get this link, we will email it out to you.

Sparrows Dress Up Day

On Wednesday 29th June Sparrows are having a dress up day. Please can children come in dressed as either a dragon, knight, or a princess. Thank you.

Dinner Choices

Please can you check the menu with your child before booking a school dinner. We frequently have children who say they don't like the option which has been picked for them, but they would have eaten an alternative choice. Thank you.

Eco Tip

Each week we will be having an eco tip of the week on the newsletter. This week's tip is;

Don't leave your house without a full reusable water bottle.

Sporting Achievement

A few of our girls played in the Thetford tournament for Bungay Town Football Club, They were all amazing and did really well. Well done girls!

Book Fair

We were very lucky to have the Norfolk Children's Book Centre come into school yesterday. Each class had a story read to them and then had the opportunity to browse the books. There was a fantastic selection of books and the children all had an amazing time.
