

Historical survey

You are a researcher for a national museum. Your latest challenge is to travel to Mexico to find out all you can about the Aztec society.

Before you leave, you must carry out some background research. Use information books, atlases, brochures, CD-ROMS and the Internet to answer the questions below.

1. Who were the Aztecs and when did they rule?

2. What remains of Aztec culture are left in Mexico?
What could you visit when you go there?

3. What would you most want to visit in Mexico and why?
