

Food chains

Complete the sentences below, using the information you have gathered to help you.

All food chains start with a _____ .

Whatever begins the food chain is called a _____ .

Whatever eats anything in a food chain is called a _____ .

A hunter is called a p _____ and the animal being hunted is the p _____ . When we draw food chains, we use an _____

to go from what is being eaten to who is e _____ it.

Cut up the picture cards and labels below and use them to complete different food chains in the table.

Producer	Consumer	Secondary consumer	Predator
 Algae	 Worm	 Man	 Hawk
 Heron	 Cabbage	 Chicken	 Plankton
 Sparrow	 Stickleback	 Maple leaf	 Caterpillar

Name _____

Under the sea

Fill in the empty boxes and find other examples to complete this table

Animal	Habitat	Diet	Adaptation
Anglerfish	Very deep water
Blue Whale		Krill
Coral polyps			Tentacles sting prey
Giant Pacific Octopus		Shellfish
Manta Ray			Gill rakers to filter plankton through
Great Frigatebird	Nests on remote islands

GILLIAN RAVENSCHROFT, SCIENCE COORDINATOR AND FREELANCE WRITER